

AMENDMENT TO EXECUTIVE ORDER 11905

1. Section 3(b)(3) would be amended by changing the title "Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence Community" to "Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence Community."
2. Section 3(d)(2) would be amended to read as follows:

"To assist the Director of Central Intelligence in the supervision and direction of the Intelligence Community, the Director of Central Intelligence shall, to the extent consistent with his statutory responsibilities, delegate to the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence Community such responsibilities relating to the Intelligence Community as he may deem appropriate."
3. Section 3(d)(3) would be amended by changing the title of "Deputy Director of Central Intelligence" to "Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for the Central Intelligence Agency."
4. Section 3(d) would be further amended by adding a subsection "(5)" which would provide:

"The Director of Central Intelligence shall, through internal directive, make provision for the exercise of his powers and responsibilities in his absence or disability."

A BILL

To amend the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. Section 102(a) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C.A. 403(a)) is amended to read as follows:

"(a) There is established under the National Security Council a Central Intelligence Agency with a Director of Central Intelligence who shall be the head thereof. There shall be two Deputy Directors of Central Intelligence: a Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for the Central Intelligence Agency (Deputy Director, Agency) and a Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence Community (Deputy Director, Community). The Director may, to the extent he deems appropriate and without being relieved of his responsibility, delegate to each of the Deputy Directors any of those authorities vested in him by virtue of his position as Director of Central Intelligence and as head of the Central Intelligence Agency. The Director may perform any of his functions or duties, or exercise any of his powers through, or with the aid of, such persons in, or organizations of, the Central Intelligence Agency as he may designate. The Director and the Deputy Directors shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from among individuals in civilian life or from among the commissioned officers of the armed services whether in active or retired status: Provided, however, that at no time shall the positions of Director and Deputy Director, Agency, be occupied simultaneously by a commissioned officer of the armed services, whether in an active or retired status."

SECTION 2. (a) Section 102(b)(3) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C.A. 403(b)(3)) is amended by striking the words "of Central Intelligence" wherever they appear in that subsection.

(b) Section 3(b) of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (50 U.S.C.A. 403c(b)) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) In the exercise of the authorities granted in subsection (a) of this section, the term "Agency head" shall mean the Director of Central Intelligence, or the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for the Central Intelligence Agency."

(c) Section 5314(36) of title 5, United States Code, is amended by striking the word "Director" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "Directors."

A BILL

A BILL

To amend the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. Section 102(a) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C.A. 403(a)) is amended to read as follows:

"(a)(1) There is established under the National Security Council a Central Intelligence Agency with a Director of Central Intelligence who shall be the head thereof, and with a Deputy Director of Central Intelligence who shall act for, and exercise the powers of, the Director during his absence or disability. The Director and the Deputy Director shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from among the commissioned officers of the armed forces, whether in an active or retired status, or from among individuals in civilian life: Provided, however, that at no time shall the two positions of the Director and Deputy Director be occupied simultaneously by commissioned officers of the armed services, whether in an active or retired status.

"(2) There shall be five Assistant Directors, appointed by the Director of Central Intelligence, who shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as the Director of Central Intelligence may prescribe. One of the Assistant Directors shall be the Assistant Director for the Intelligence Community. He shall have as his principal duty assisting the Director of Central Intelligence in his responsibilities with respect to the Intelligence Community, as defined in Executive order. The Director may, to the extent he deems appropriate and without being relieved of his responsibility, delegate to each of the Deputy Directors any of those authorities vested in him by virtue of his position as Director of Central Intelligence and as head of the Central Intelligence Agency and may perform any of his functions or duties, or exercise any of his powers through, or with the aid of, such persons in, or organizations of, the Central Intelligence Agency as he may designate.
